

August 2017 Monthly News & Updates

June brought us to the end of the Habitat fiscal year, so July was the perfect time for reflection, assessment and brainstorming new initiatives. We appreciate your steady, reliable support of our affordable housing efforts - YOU are the glue that keeps it all together and moving forward!

Homebuyer Readiness Workshop August 9

Homebuyer Readiness Workshops are FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC, and cover a variety of topics relating to home ownership. These workshops are mandatory to qualify for a Habitat Home.

August Topic: Being a Good Neighbor - What are the legal responsibilities of Homeowners according to the local government? Brad Claussen of Manhattan Code Services will review local ordinances to keep us all informed.

August 9, 7pm, Manhattan Public Library

Everybody Counts
August 5 9am-1pm
Douglas Community Center

The purpose of the "Everybody Counts!" is to provide free and much needed services to our most vulnerable population. We are planning to have Dental Care, Medical Care, various social service organizations, school district representatives, and other various community organizations that want to be part of addressing these needs. MAHFH will be there too promoting our home ownership program!
